

Bio for Katya Miller

Katya Miller is the Director of Professional Development at Townsend and Townsend and Crew in San Francisco. Prior to joining Townsend, she headed Professional Development efforts at Thelen for nearly eight years. Katya is a graduate of UC Hastings College of the Law. She entered the Professional Development field as a means of combining her post-graduate experience working on the design and implementation of legal education programs with her JD.