

Sandee Magliozzi, Esq. is the Director of Law Externships in the Academic and Professional Development Department at Santa Clara University School of Law. She has specialized in attorney professional development and legal education for over fifteen years. Sandee supervises all of the upper division law students who work for academic credit with, non-profit organizations, in-house counsel, and law firms. In addition, she teaches the Civil Practice and High Technology Externship Seminars and conducts workshops on professional skills and leadership development. Before joining SCU, Sandee was the firm-wide Professional Development Manager for Heller Ehrman and a former Senior Manager of Attorney Training and Development at Holland & Knight where she developed and implemented comprehensive career curricula designed to provide associates with law practice, professional and leadership skills. Sandee currently serves as Vice Chair of NALP's Law Student and Lawyer Professional Development Sections' collaboration focusing on "bridge the gap issues" as new lawyers move from law school to practice.
